News Views Editorial

Well hello there happy campers!

I can't begin to tell you just how happy I am to be writing this editorial, it's the second time I've sat down to write it and hopefully will be the last! You see, with deadline being Wednesday 17th August and me not being at paid work, I had N&V ready, bar 3 pages to go to print...49 pages all filled, edited aaaand then the computer froze and the screen went a transparent white colour and then it went black, to cut a long story short, we called on the expert advice of PC Direct Supplies who we know and trust and the data at the moment isn't there but, hopefully, fingers crossed, is retrievable...only not without the PC going away to be fixed by specialists...so with 2 days to go before we were due to send to print we have to start the magazine from absolute scratch...it's fair to say many four letter expletives passed my lips then it was a case of knuckling down and getting on with it!

So firstly, I'm just going to apologise if we've missed anything or got anything wrong, please do email us to let us know, we've tried our very best given the deadlines and our working parameters so just go easy with us, it would have been easier to say we'd not have a September Edition but since when do we take the easy option?!

This Edition (which nearly didn't happen) is packed full of local events and notices, we have all of our fantastic regular columnists and this month also have new entries from our very own News Hound (on page 7) and the first part of an Autobiography by the Late Richard Naylor of Manor Farm, Frieston, those of you who knew him will appreciate the honesty and humour laced through his words, I for one am looking forward to the next instalment.

Of course, it wouldn't be a September Edition without mention of the Gala! Carole and I have been working really hard to get the event finalised, you remember Carole, my right hand woman, she's on the front page of this edition, only don't tell her, she might not have noticed! The middle section of the magazine acts as a pull out for the day with details of the history of the event, the itinerary, dog show, and our sponsors and raffle donators. At this stage in the proceedings we are hoping for sunshine, we've ordered the burgers, the staging and singers are booked, the stall holders are packed and ready to host you, now all we need is the date in your diaries and are looking forward to welcoming you to the event!

I'm going to take a little rest now before the Gala and we'll be back in fine fettle next month, have a fantastic September, with best wishes, Laura & Pete

News & Views News Hound

Wow, when I cheekily asked for my own page I was only half joking yet here I am, a fully fledged member of the Team!

I guess I'll start at the beginning...it was a normal Saturday morning and I was just with my Mum and my Brothers and before I knew what was happening I was being put in a big box thingy and being transported...two people who I now know were my Hu-man and Hu-woman kept on looking at me from the seats at the front of the box, I decided the best solution was to sleep and see if it was a bad dream, I mean, who would take a pup away from their Mum? I bet that rarely happens in real life...

When I woke up, we'd stopped, it wasn't a dream and the hu-man took me out of the box thingy and took me into a place they called 'the garden' there I saw two black things, one was a big big version of me (who I'd find out would become my mentor) and the other was a small hissy one with pointy ears and sharp claws...he would soon become my enemy, probably because I chased him! He soon got me back by biting my nose really hard and making me scream, that freaked out the Humans I can tell you, they'd never heard a screaming dog! It was even scarier than those pigeons flapping about, I hate birds!

So, in the garden one day not so long ago, Mr Hissy caught a mouse, this was no good, so I took it off him and proudly passed it off as my own handiwork, honestly, you should have seen how the humans reacted...the hu-woman decided that the best course of action was to try to distract me from the little furry mouse in my mouth whereas the hu-man decided the best tactic was to shout and run at me...an excellent game of chase ensued...best day ever...until yesterday...

Yesterday it rained, it's not rained since I was moved to my new home and to be honest it was yet another thing that freaked me out, I ran outside to wee but decided it was safer to go in the kitchen instead...the humans did not agree but they cleaned it up anyway and I thought I'd best have a pup sleep, see if it was all a bad dream...I was just in that happy sleep place when I was rudely awakened by banging and flapping, (Mr Hissy thought this was the best day ever!) I screamed again and squeezed myself under the settee. From my vantage point I could see one of those stupid flappy things had come into MY house...I don't go into their trees, this was certainly a case of trespass, luckily it realised the error of its ways before the human got to it, but not before it did purple elderflower poops on the carpet and up the wall. The hu-woman wasn't impressed, she got out the big noisy thingy that cleans the carpet when I wee on it, you know, it's very clever but the big big version of me barks at it, the humans say she isn't 'setting a good example', it's all very funny!

Talking of getting under settee's, I think the house is getting smaller, I've noticed lately that I can't do things that I used to be able to do like squeeze under the settee easily but I can stand up and peek to see what's on the kitchen table now!

Anyway, I'd best go now, I'm sleepy again after all this brain work...see you next month!

Richard Naylor

The Autobiography

Richard Naylor lived at Frieston Manor Farm from a 10 year old boy until his death at 73 years old in 2012. Before he died, he dictated much of his life story including many recollections of life in and around Caythorpe and Frieston...

My dear mother was a state registered nurse, theatre nurse, midwife and pharmacist and I was born at the Bromhead where she nursed, now known as the Nuffield Centre. I appeared after a 7 hour labour and my father said he could hear me hollering out from where he worked at Newport Garage nearby. At the side of my mother's bed at the Bromhead a family of thrushes were being fed by her window. I arrived on the 30th March 1939 pre-war quality.

My first home was Stonefield Cottage, Stonefield Avenue, Lincoln. This was a wonderland; we had a 2 acre kitchen garden that my father bought a British Anzani Iron Horse tractor and we produced all of our own vegetables. I can remember hollering my father because he never used to take the clutch out and he could swing the whole assembly around while he was horizontal in the air, he weighed 18 stone. It had a J A Prestwick engine going full chat. I was following him collecting silver and bronze roman coins that he dragged up behind the plough. He gave all of these to Lincoln Museum.

I was Christened Richard Edward Naylor. School was frightening, my mother used to wrap up digestive biscuits in grease proof paper inside my satchel. I called in with her see father at Newport Garage every morning before I went to school. Then we would wonder holding hands up the Bailgate in Lincoln, turn left at the White Hart Hotel, past George Dusty my friend whose father was an electrician. Past one of the famous residents Tony Crook who kept his racing cars at my father's garage a 2.8 Tipo Alfa Romeo, 2 stage supercharged and a 1938 328 BMW in the days when the white and blue emblem was done with enamel. I used to sit in them as a little boy and dream on. I always wanted to be a racing driver.

Now we come to a cul-de-sac on the left where I clutched my mother's hand in a nervous state, we would ring the doorbell to two kind sisters who were the school mistresses. At 11 o'clock I tucked into my digestive biscuits which injected some reality into life that normality was even possible in a school room.

After the two mistresses retired due to ill health I was abducted and forced into a new school which was horrific. Westgate School Lincoln. Headmaster was a man called Friskney. I remember us all being marched in and of course being a precocious little lad, I thought that school was all about asking questions to get answers for which I was set upon with Friskney and other teachers with a cane. They would march me down ghastly green corridors where he had numerous canes in a glass cabinet, for which he would give 6 of the best trying to break your fingers. If you moved your hand away, he would bring it back up with the cane. I hated the whole experience. And then one would be marched back down to morning prayers where one was forced to stand in line. Then Mrs Cringe would start up the piano and we were forced to sing about 'Gentle Jesus who loved us all' which I always thought was somewhat incongruous... Join us again in October for the next instalment!

St Vincent's Church Prayer Group

Prayer is at the centre of all that we do at St Vincent's. We believe that all we accomplish comes about not because of us but because of God.

Prayer transforms us; it enables us to become more the people God created us to be, and so draws us to share in God's creative and compassionate work in the world.

We believe that we are called to be persistent in prayer, both for ourselves, those in need, our community and the world.

The church is open every day if you would like to find a quiet space and a time to pray or you are most welcome to join us in Church on Monday's 12th and 26th September at 2pm.

Specific prayer requests can be left in the box by the votive candle stand - you may like to light a candle as a focus for the prayer you offer. You can also send your prayers to loveden.deanery@lincoln.anglian.org marking them as St Vincent's Prayer Group.

CAYTHORPE SHORT MAT BOWLS

Members, past members and friends met at the Village Hall on Tuesday 26th July to wish our chairman Bob Sampson and his wife Ann good luck for their future move to Sussex in September.

Bob has been the guiding hand and mentor for many members since joining the Club in 2014 and was elected as chairman in 2017. Throughout his time as Chairman has been enthusiastic and supportive, welcoming new members with a smile, coaching and help when needed, he will be missed by all of us.

We started the session with a roll up, with members divided into 2 teams playing for just over an hour, after which we adjourned to the garden for a surprise afternoon tea, arranged and catered by club members with Prosecco donated by Carol Tointon.

The tea was followed by a presentation of a mounted jack and a lovely bottle of wine to Bob by Janet Avison.

It was a lovely afternoon and a complete surprise for Bob, which he then topped with a surprise for the club consisting of a complete set of vintage boxed carpet bowls and jack to be used as a trophy. This will be known as the Sampson Trophy.

We all wished Bob and Ann much happiness for their prospective move into a new Home in Sunny Sussex.

Carlton Scroop Parish Charities

Dating back over 250 years, the charities were established to help residents of Carlton Scroop in times of hardship.

We all know how difficult things can be, especially when unexpected events lead to expenses we've not budgeted for. In the past the charity has been able to help with expenses like transport costs for medical appointments, emergency repairs in the home or accessibility works. Do you need help now?

The trustees invite residents of Carlton Scroop and Normanton who are experiencing (or know of someone, such as a friend or neighbour who is experiencing) exceptional difficulties to contact them in total confidence to discuss whether we can help.

Requests will be considered at the next Trustee meeting, please submit any requests before October 1st.

Year 6 Leavers' Assembly

The weather was good to Year 6 for our leavers' assembly. The children began with a rendition of "High Hopes", They then shared their memories of their time at Caythorpe, along with teachers and classes they had been in along the way.

It wouldn't have been a Caythorpe leavers without a peek into what the children may be for their future careers. This year we had, teachers, police force, Navy officers, football managers, doctors, comedians, actors, gamers and even Prime Minister!

Finally, the children sang "You Could be Anything You Want to Be!" adapting the lyrics from their Bugsy Malone performance. The children then shared a BBQ and cake (Wow, amazing Mrs Bartholomew" with fun and games on the field.

Thank you to the FSA for the food and Mr Knight and Mrs Locke for their skills on the BBQ. The children have all been amazing throughout their primary years at Caythorpe School. All the staff and volunteers at Caythorpe wish our Year 6 leavers all the best wishes and we are certain that they will continue to succeed at secondary school.

Caythorpe Gala - A Reason To Celebrate

For any newcomers, or maybe just those who are unaware, here is a brief history on what the Gala is all about, taken from the Caythorpe & Frieston Parish Council webpage;

“During 1944 the 1st Airborne Signals Regiment was formed with approximately 450 men all ranks. The first major battle they became engaged in was, Operation Market Garden, the battle for the bridges of Arnhem. The regiment was based in and around Caythorpe for training prior to the operation; Holy Cross House (now Holy Cross Gardens) was the Headquarters, the village hall served as a billet and work shops for the blacksmith and boot repairer and the NAAFI was in the upstairs room at the back. Officers and men were billeted in local houses and in Caythorpe Court.

After the war a few survivors of the operation started visiting Caythorpe on the anniversary of Arnhem, to visit the Church and remember lost Comrades. As time passed by the event became officially recognised and the 1st Airborne Signals Regiment modern day equivalent, 216 Signals Regiment, now visit annually and hold a memorial service for all comrades lost in Arnhem and other conflicts since.

During the Regiment’s service in Aden their camp was called St Vincent’s and this tradition has been carried on in other conflicts. Today when talking to the younger members of the Regiment they consider Caythorpe to be the spiritual home of the 216 Regiment and over the years the Village has always welcomed the Regiment and combine their annual visit with a Gala Weekend.”

That briefly sums up the reason why we celebrate with a Gala Weekend, the ‘Where’ is the Playing Field, Old Lincoln Road, Caythorpe, the ‘When’ is always on a Saturday in early September, this year its 3rd September between 12:00 midday and 16:00.

The ‘What’ is so so much fun and entertainment, with a lot of hard work going on behind the scenes to keep all the plates spinning seamlessly! Elsewhere in this edition you will find a full run down of events, but there are also plenty of stalls to buy items from and a fantastic BBQ to keep you all fed as well! Film Synopsis: Following the unexpected success of the band's debut album "No Hoppers, Jokers and Rogues", we re-join them almost a year later, struggling with the pressures, pitfalls and temptations of their newfound fame, second album syndrome, and performing on the pyramid stage at Glastonbury.

Her: Sequels can be hit or miss and I wasn't sure how Fisherman's Friends One and All would pan out. James Purefoy reclaimed his role as Jim the lead singer of the group.

The film was very cleverly scripted and the acting spectacular. With Jim being the main focus and struggling with the death of his Dad, Jago, it was easy to write him off as being bad tempered and moody, instead of looking that bit deeper and realising that his bravado was disguising deep grief and depression which was helped by talking and taking time to recognise what was going on. Jago, played by David Hayman was present throughout the film whilst Jim was struggling to make sense of his loss and I may have had a tear in my eye at the end of the film when he gained a sense of peace with his loss.

When we go to films to review for News &Views, I am aware that I have to pay attention and within minutes of the film started I was immersed into their world. This film was on par if not above the original, long gone seem to be the days where sequels are sappy seconds. Tuppence Middleton who featured in the original movie as Alwyn was not present in One for All, however, this was written into the script and the film was certainly not lacking because of it.

An excellent performance by all of the cast, a real feel good film with the added bonus of a few tears both happy and sad...I do enjoy a bit of emotion in a film! A big thumbs up from me this month, I thoroughly enjoyed my visit to The Savoy! A solid 4 out of 5 from me!

Him: This film was Laura's choice, and whilst open minded as I am, it wouldn't have been high up on my list of films to see this year...if at all. Well, here it comes folks, something I rarely ever say...I was wrong! If you are looking for a genuine feel good film then you won't see any better this year, or for a long time after, I'll wager.

I use the word 'Genuine' because that's just how this film feels, you genuinely feel involved and care about the protagonists, it's in no way at all a cheesy smaltzy Hollywood emotional roller coaster, it feels far more real and it is far far better for that. Admittedly some of it is a little bit predictable, but that's a small price to pay for all the good feels this movie gives you. If you want a uplifting film that will leave you feeling happy, look no further, this one ticks all the boxes on that score, additionally the cast are fantastic, especially James Purfoy as 'Jim' and Maggie Steed as his Mother.

Make sure you stay for the end credits too, where you get to see the real 'Fisherman's Friends' speak about the climax to their unbelievable ride!

A 4 out of 5 from me too!

In and Around the Garden!

It has been a trying time for gardens and gardeners. For the last eight weeks we have had just 13mm of rain, mostly short showers that barely wetted the ground. I remember 1976 – the solution then was to appoint a Minister for Drought and for my husband and I to go on a camping holiday. The drought broke almost immediately, and it rained so hard that our borrowed tent shrank and had to have its poles shortened the next time it was used. We won't be camping ever again, so the garden will just have to wait it out. Rain is forecast, so fingers crossed.

The 'no water' experiment continues. The woodland area looks awful: some plants have died, including Viburnum davidii, a shrub that looked fairly drought resistant, and others are still green but prostrate – Brunnera and our native hellebore among them. It remains to be seen whether they will come back when it finally rains, but they look very sad and rather depressing at the moment. Mahonia and a variegated Eleagnus are hanging on, but the one plant that looks OK is Euphorbia amygdaloides robbiae, which remains green and glossy.

Californian Fuschia

Sedum

The rockery looks pretty good, considering. Star plant of the moment is the California fuchsia (Zauschneria californica) covered with bright orange trumpets, but assorted sedums are also coming into flower and Artemesia 'Powis Castle' provides a pretty silver backdrop at the top of the slope. Penstemons continue to flower, and the Californian poppies are still going strong.

In the surrounding countryside, many of the verges have been cut so flowers for bees and butterflies are scarce. Gardens can provide back-up supplies, and here, oregano and other herbs are proving popular with honey bees. Bumble bees prefer toadflax and lavender, but there are fewer about than there were a few weeks ago. It hasn't been a good year for butterflies, though I have seen more gatekeepers than usual and some hummingbird hawk moths. The others have just appeared in ones and twos, even on buddleia. There are few birds about just now, but more goldcrest sightings than ever before. They all look the same to me, but as surprisingly loud contact calls went on and on for hours, I think there must have been a family. There are still robins and wrens in residence, but as usual, the most common bird is the woodpigeon.

I have kept a dish of water on the ground for hedgehogs, and set up a camera to see what uses it. On one night there were seven visits for water by three or four different hedgehogs, and between them they ate all the food I put out – so it isn't being taken by cats. One is a lot smaller, and gets bullied by a bigger one if they chance to meet. The little one curls up and gets punted around like a football, but unrolls and walks off unharmed once the bigger one leaves, having asserted its dominance. JA

Taythorpe & District Garden Society

Our planned speaker for August had to cancel due to Covid but fortunately Alan Mason, gardener, garden designer, broadcaster and raconteur, kindly volunteered to present his talk on 'Gardens of the Italian Lakes' at very short notice. Alan is well known for his garden designs both locally and internationally, but he also enjoys a part-time career as an expert guide on garden cruises, including around the Italian Lakes. His talk, beautifully illustrated with pictures of the gardens he knows well, covered the large gardens associated with the big houses around the lakes.

Isola Bella is perhaps the most remarkable. It is built on a rocky island in Lake Maggiore, which was flattened and carved into a series of terraces to accommodate a villa and an extensive baroque-style garden. From a distance it looks more like a cruise ship than an island! By contrast, Villa Melzi on Lake Como shows influences from both Japan and Britain in its less formal, park-style design. A variety of other gardens were described, each with its own individual character, some very formal with parterres and sculpture, others with a more naturalistic design and choice planting. Villa Cicogna Mozzoni, overlooking Lake Lugano, even has a 500 year old, double staircase with 156 steps and a rill running down the centre, lined with cypress trees that Alan had a hand in planting.

Alan interspersed his garden tour with interesting and amusing anecdotes, that made for a very entertaining evening. Many thanks to Alan for stepping into the breach.

Our next meeting open to visitors will be on October. 11th. Details in the October issue.

It has been a busy month for the ladies of Caythorpe WI. Certainly not a traditional summer holiday when many organisations take a break. The highlight was our annual outing, and this year members and friends set off by coach to enjoy a scenic drive around Rutland Water, before arriving at Barnsdale Gardens, near Oakham. Barnsdale was created by the late Geoff Hamilton and was home to BBC's Gardeners World. They have been extended and were opened to the public and are now successfully managed by Geoff's son Nick.

We hadn't expected it to be quite so hot, but we were relieved to find plenty of shady corners to rest in as we explored the 38 gardens. They have suffered as ours have, but gave us lots of ideas. Even better were the shady tables of the cafe, and the delicious ice creams. A good time was enjoyed by all, and I think everyone slept well that night.

Two events took place at the end of July, organised by South Lincolnshire Federation, and were an ideal opportunity to meet members of other WI's in the south of the county. The first of these was 'Federation Day' when three of us enjoyed an excellent speaker; celebrated special anniversaries of WI's; a delicious lunch and finally a most entertaining vocalist (who has now been booked to come to Caythorpe WI next year!)

A couple of weeks later came the Quiz! Caythorpe was represented by THE FAB4 (D,J,M & P) With 300 years of knowledge between them, they dusted off 'the little grey cells' and tried to remember!! They achieved a commendable 6th place out of 11, but even better 3 of the 4 won a raffle prize! An enjoyable evening. The book group members have continued to read, meet and discuss, the craft group members have continued their pursuits, and the coffee drinkers enjoy their 'coffee and chat' Monday mornings.

Even the planning group has been busy booking speakers and events for next year! August holiday? Doesn't feel like it!

If you haven't thought of coming along to find out more, please come to one of our main meetings. We meet on the second Thursday each month, at 2pm in the Village Hall. On September 8th, we will have a Craft afternoon. Whether you would like to have a go, or see what others are doing, you will be made very welcome and can enjoy 'a cuppa' and a chat without committing yourself. Look forward to seeing you all on the 8th. Pauline Brown

Cricketing News with Dave Cree

With the Junior Season now concluded, all attention is on the Senior's performances at the top of Division One of the Lincolnshire Sunday League. With four games (for Caythorpe all away from Home) remaining to be played Caythorpe and Woodhall Spa are way ahead of all the other Teams. Caythorpe have lost once, to Woodhall, who have had a game called off due to weather so at this stage Woodhall have 225 points to Caythorpe's 224. The game between the two Clubs on 4th September, at Woodhall, could well decide the League Championship.

In June Caythorpe played Blankney and won by 10 wickets. Batting first Blankney only managed 104 runs, with Jack Butler leading our bowlers with 5 wickets for 12 runs. He was ably assisted by Alex and Joe Dickinson and James King who share the other wickets. In reply our opening batsmen, Chris Wharmby and Joe Dickinson, scored the 105 runs to win in just 19.4 Overs.

The following week the opposition were Woodhall Spa. As it happened that Sunday Woodhall's First Eleven didn't have a fixture - so they brought five of their first team players, including a "Pro" to Caythorpe. Caythorpe batted first, and scored 158 for nine wickets. Joe Attewell was top scorer, with 61 runs. Battling hard in the field, Caythorpe only managed to take two Woodhall wickets but it took the Sparites 32 Overs to score the runs needed for victory. This was good experience for our Players, as if they are promoted to the Premiership, which looks very likely, it will be Teams like Woodhall Spa First Eleven that they will meet next year.

Moving on to July, our first game was at Home to Cherry Willingham. Caythorpe batted first and scored 207 runs with Joe Attewell making a fine unbeaten 137. Good fielding restricted Cherry to 179 runs for 6 wickets, shared between James King, Jack Butler, Chris Wharmby and Councillor Darren Lee making his first 2022 appearance in a Caythorpe shirt. Several regular players were absent on holidays, so Andrea Kiddle, a County Under 18 Girls player, made her Senior debut.

Caythorpe's next match was home to Barkston, an opportunity for a Caythorpe "double" as Caythorpe had won the match at Barkston earlier in the Season. This was a fiercely contested local Derby, with Barkston being bowled out for 76 runs. Alex Dickinson took 4 wickets, brother Joe got three, as did Chris Wharmby. Joe Dickinson and Vince Markham led the reply, each scoring 27, as Caythorpe triumphed by five wickets. Fixtures against Barkston have extra spice as some of their Players played their Junior Cricket at Caythorpe.

The first match in August saw Caythorpe start a run of six consecutive Away games, a most unusual fixture list this year! Playing at Blankney with Caythorpe looking for another "double", a very one-sided game saw Blankney bowled out for just 79 in 26 overs. Wickets were taken by Alex and Joe Dickinson, Darren Lee, Vince Markham and Chris Wharmby. In reply once again our opening batsmen scored rapidly and finished the game in just 10 overs. Joe Dickinson finishing with 54 runs, and Chris Wharmby scoring 20 runs, giving Caythorpe a 10 wicket victory. Sadly Blankney were only able to field 10 players, and their next game, against Woodhall, was conceded due to player shortage. We hope they will be able to continue, as already this season Nocton have dropped out of our Division due to lack of Players. This shows the importance of having a thriving Junior section which we have emphasised for many years at Caythorpe. We read that unfortunately Fulbeck have had to withdraw from the Premier Division for a similar reason.

Caythorpe's next fixture was at Hartsholme (in Lincoln) and on a very hot Sunday afternoon Caythorpe won the toss and elected to bat. Joe Attewell and Joe Dickinson led the scoring, with 59 and 45 respectively, as Caythorpe amassed 213 runs for 7 wickets. In reply Hartsholme struggled to 120 all out, Alex Dickinson again impressing with 5 wickets for 19 runs. Other wickets were taken by Chris Wharmby, Vince Markham and Andrea Kiddle.

Caythorpe now have three games to play, at Morton, Cherry Willingham, and Aisthorpe, who have all been beaten at Caythorpe, and the all-important game away at Woodhall Spa. However Woodhall Spa's team cannot be promoted, as Woodhall already have their First Team in the Premiership, but we can be sure they will give us a hard game to probably decide the Division One Championship.

Several of our Players play elsewhere on Saturdays and have recorded some very impressive performances for those Teams in addition to Caythorpe. Quite regularly "our" players figure on the weekly Lincolnshire Honours Board published by the English Cricket Board.

As we move towards the end of the Season we will be holding our Junior Presentation night on Friday 9th September, and plans are already being made for winter nets at Carre's School.

Finally, a most important new development for Caythorpe Cricket Club is the launch of a Ladies Team. Hopefully they will play in a League next year, but in September they will be taking part in a Ladies Softball Tournament at Lindum Cricket Club. Our Ladies will be coming to the Ground for taster / practice sessions on 8th & 15th September, 6-7:30pm, when our Senior Coach, Vince Markham, will be giving some training. Several of our prospective Team have played in Junior Cricket, but for others it will be a first experience of competitive Cricket.

Any Ladies who fancy trying Cricket will be very welcome to come along and should contact Kathryn Betts (07815 174461) for details or just turn up on the night. Girls need to be School Year 8 and older. There is no upper age limit! - Dave Cree (Hon. Pres. Caythorpe C.C.)

Not From the Rectory

The Rector has a 'wherry' nice time in Norfolk and remembers that for the Poet Laureate it was 'Bliss to be in Diss'

The opportunity to travel the 'Bittern Line' between Norwich and the north Norfolk coast came finally courtesy of a two night stay in Ipswich: the train from Ipswich to Norwich stops at Stowmarket and then at Diss which John Betjeman and Mrs Mary Wilson (wife of Harold Wilson) celebrated in verse of 1974.

The landscape, as JB wrote, 'yields on left and right to widening fields (and) flint church towers sparkling in the light'.

Today's comfortable Greater Anglia trains offer a convenient connecting train from Norwich to Sheringham via Cromer: the train leaves Norwich over the Yare and turns away from the lines to Yarmouth and Lowestoft to head north in a straight line through Salhouse to the station at Hoveton and Wroxham to which the writer would shortly return; happily a train was in the station which serves the miniature railway running along the Bure Valley towards Aylsham while the main line continues through Worstead and North Walsham and somewhat improbably stops at Gunton station built for the convenience of Lord Suffield when visiting Gunton Hall.

Approaching Cromer the train loops around the town and enters today's truncated station along the line from Sheringham to which the train now runs via West Runton with glimpses of the north Norfolk coastline. There is just time to look across the level crossing and glimpse activity on the North Norfolk Railway which today uses the original Sheringham station before the Greater Anglia service returns to Cromer and in due course deposits the writer in the 'Capital of the Norfolk Broads' in good time to walk down to the moorings for the 'Broads Tours' and take his pre-booked seat on the one and half hour 'Vintage Broadsman' to explore along the River Bure and into both Wrexham and Salthouse Broads - created after peat had been extracted on a commercial scale - and marvel at riverside thatched roof properties which have replaced garage and car with boat house and boat!

In Wroxham Broad we saw one of the original Norfolk Wherries now converted for passenger carrying and no doubt available for those with suitably large budgets on which to draw.

A rather up market station buffet served coffee and Eton Mess before the Norwich train arrived which connected with the next London departure for Ipswich. ‘What day could be more sweet than this, Dear John, the day we came to Diss’!

The Norfolk Broads are patrolled by Navigation Rangers and while in the main they check boats which are travelling in excess of the 5mph speed limit they do get involved in crime as Chris Crowther explores in his murder-mystery ‘WaterProof’ [2007] in which the Ranger is a retired Metropolitan police officer, Jack Fellows. His wife Audrey is churchwarden and the vicar of St Cuthbert’s a frequent visitor to their house. The vicar, Julian Jamieson, we learn had formerly been an Army Padre serving with the Royal Leicester’s and so knew the local colonel from his army days. However, the ‘colonel’ was an imposter and while the vicar did not as such blackmail him, he did suggest that St Cuthbert’s was badly in need of restoration and that generous donations would be more than welcome – and hence the anonymous donations which had been streaming in to the church fabric fund since the new vicar had arrived! But don’t worry – spoiler alert - the vicar did not commit the murders!

News & Views Shout-Out

Hi,

I love reading Andy Roberts archive stories, about Caythorpe. He is a very knowledgeable man, on local history. I also enjoyed the WI article about clothes, unbelievable that so much is wasted. Very interesting reading. Carol McNulty

Hi Laura & Pete,

If you go to www.traveline then click on 'Plan your journey' you need to enter the date of travel then you get a box where you enter where you want to start from and another where you want to go to, the time you want to start your journey or arrive at your destination. It then checks the information and may ask you for more details.

Next it will work out several possible journeys nearest to your requested times. These show the time of departure, time of arrival, number of changes, type of transport (Bus, walk, train etc) and length of journey.

You can then click on a particular journey and it will break it down into more detail giving you times for each leg of the journey.

A couple of examples are when I had to get to Louth Hospital and Stone, Staffordshire so it can be very useful if travelling somewhere you're not used to going to.

Hi Laura & Pete,

Could I give a shout out and a big THANK YOU to David, who lives in South Parade? This kind gentleman helped me to my feet when I tripped on the pavement near the Spar shop. I bruised my ribs, as well as my pride, and was temporarily winded. After helping me up, he offered to walk me home, which was well out of his way. So, thank you again David. Other neighbours also offered help when I got home too. It's so good to know that even with all the negative things that are happening round and about us at the moment, people are still willing to stop and help when it's needed.
